Homecoming for next year is scheduled for September 16, 2016 for our planning of next year's competition.

Current Business:

Tastefully Simple: Julia Haage is back for the 3rd Tastefully Simple fundraiser for the band. She has brought samples to the meeting. She will be delivering catalogs as soon as she receives them, they were late being delivered. Customers can also order through her website and then email her to tell her which student to credit for the sale. Julia will donate her profit back to the band, the hostess credit that the band earns will be ordered for baskets to be auctioned at Stompin at the Savoy.

Raffle: Tickets should hopefully arrive next week then sent home with the students, each student is required to sell at least 1 book. $1 from each ticket sold will be transferred to their Charms account.

50/50 ticket sales: We set up 2 tables at the home basketball games and sell 50/50 tickets, the drawing is at half time. Volunteers are requested, there is not an official sign up, just show up.

Madrigal Coat Check: Madrigals is on December 11th, 12th and 13th, only 3 days this year, we staff their coat check and dish up the main course. In our down time, we have our own potluck. The tips that we earn are for the band. We need to wear black and is also recommended we bring oven mitts or pot holders.

Question & Answer Session

A concern was raised about each student being required to sell 1 book of tickets, plans were made to call Kroger to set up a day/time for students to sell their tickets.

Adjourn: It was motioned by Stephen Cordes and properly seconded by Dennis Ahrens to adjourn at 7:40pm. Motion carried.
